Anna Fraser was a member of the highly successful "Canadian Air Force" national freestyle team from 1983 to 1988. She was considered to be one of the best female aerialists in the world at that time. In 1986, her reputation was confirmed when she became Overall World Cup Aerials Champion.

During her six years on the World Cup circuit, she competed in 136 events in all three freestyle disciplines (aerials, moguls and ballet) earning 29 individual medals, 5-gold, 10-silver and 14-bronze. At the World Cup Grand Prix she won 8-medals, 1-gold, 3-silver and 3-bronze. She finished in 2nd place in combined events at the 1986 Federation Internationale de ski (FIS) World Championships held in Tignes, France, and finished in 4th place in Aerials Demonstration at the 1988 Olympic Winter Games held in Calgary, Alberta.

At the national level, she won 8-National Championships in three separate disciplines, aerials, moguls and ballet.
