A FEW "DON'TS"

FOR SKI-ERS

(One for Each Day in the Week)

---

1. Don't forget to wear your badge.
2. Don't park your skis on the back platform of a street car and then complacently go inside and sit down. The first time the car stops or rounds a corner they will probably fall on milady's fifty-dollar head-piece or on Mr. T. T. Bang's new lid, and then the beans will be spilled. We can't expect all the public to be patient all the time.
3. "Don't fly before you can walk." Until you have learned fair ski control, don't try steep hills, especially if there are trees or bushes en route or a crust on the snow.
4. Don't blindly go shooting down every and any place on Mount Royal without knowing what is at the bottom. There are several cliff edges and quarry cuttings up there, which, though picturesque, make poor landing spots.
5. Don't slide across the highways on the mountain. Ski-ers do not own the mountain, and the public, on foot or on horse, and the cabby, must be allowed some rights.
6. Don't think that because a man is on snow-shoes that he is not a "sport" like you. This country was founded on snow-shoes before you and I were born.
7. Don't forget to wear your badge.

Note the special-shaped sole to hold the irons of Skis, which prevent the boot from slipping.
